Joan Burgués Martisella - "Images of my stay in Durban, South Africa in 2018"

Joan Burgués Martisella was born in Escaldes - Engordany, Andorra. He is the son of Joan Burgués Molins and Carme Martisella Baró and has a son Jossep. His father, Joan Burgués, a political exile started a business very early in 1950 specializing in photography at number 66 on Av, Meritxell under the name Foto Cine Color.

Joan Burgués Martisella, like most photographers in Andorra, was interested in portraiture, landscape and spontaneity, among others, and each with his own ideas was building his own identity.

In 1983, the FIAP grants the title to him of the AFIAP (Artist FIAP).

In 1986, the FIAP awarded to him the highest FIAP award HonEFIAP.

In 1995, he was elected Vice-President of the FIAP, a position he still holds today.

He has had different exhibitions in Cuba, Uruguay, Panama, France, Turkey, Spain, and Colombia as well as in other European countries. And of course in Andorra.

He is president of the FAF "Andorran Federation of Amateur Photography and Cinema," president of the "Circle of Arts and Letters" of Andorra.
